REGENERATIVE MEDICINE TREATMENTS

ABOUT US

At QC Kinetix (Boise), we have implemented a system of healing that will put you on the road to recovery. Our fully staffed clinic in Boise, Idaho is a hub for treatment options and pain-reducing medical providers who care about you and your recovery. When you contact our team, we will first assess your condition to determine if you are a suitable candidate for regenerative treatments and then formulate a custom treatment plan to deliver the best outcomes for you. It's no secret that surgery can be expensive and painful. With our regenerative medicine in Boise, we've been able to provide a treatment solution that is both fast and beneficial, without the cost of surgery. Our treatments work to reduce pain and inflammation quickly, using your body's partitions to repair and restore injured tissue while strengthening healthy tissue. Your treatment will be completed in our clinic, with no hospital admissions, invasive procedures or long recovery times. Our staff will give you the best possible care to ensure you are getting back to your normal routine as soon as possible.
